4. Symbolic-Interactionism

- George Herbert Mead – Pioneer of Social Interactionism; social action is seen as symbolic behavior and interaction is based on shared symbolic meanings learned through socialization.
- Charles Cooley – “organic theory of society” – the relation of the individual society; developed the concept of “looking-glass self” – the ability to visualize oneself through the eyes of other people.
- W.I Thomas – introduced the situational approach or behavioral approach; behavior as conditioned by one's “definition of the situation”
